WITH PASTOR JOEL

Weddings, graduations, vacations, sunshine:

SUMMER! My own vacation plans are a compilation of family coming to visit us & us going to visit family. Our kids from NY arrived in late last week & hopefully Barb & I will be on our way to Pittsburgh to see our parents & various other relations today.

Getting out of our normal routine & getting away from the familiar can give us a fresh perspective on life. I hope you will get a break from your "everyday" soon.

There are two kinds of good vacations: 1) those that are so wonderful you hate for them to end & 2) those that are so disappointing you are glad to get back to work! Either way it's a win. There are also "too" kinds of vacations: you spent too much, you ate too much, you did too much ... but then again, it is vacation!
