The View
From My Window
WITH PASTOR JOEL

There is a state of mind that is becoming very popular today where you go back & relive your childhood. You think thoughts that haven't occurred to you in years & you actually begin to believe you are young again! It's called dementia &, for most people, it's not as wonderful as it sounds.

We are designed to move forward not backward; to age, mature & improve in our thinking over time. Every day we live is an opportunity to become a better person. But you won't get anywhere good without first identifying some goals -- some life targets. Decide what you hope to become then enlist God's help to get there.

Tomorrow you will be different person than you are today. The question is whether it will be a better version of you or not so much. The decisions you make today will go a long way to answering that question.
