The View
From My Window
WITH PASTOR JOEL

I had a friend tell me that he has a love/hate relationship with vacations. He loves anticipating that soon he will break away from his routine & be doing stuff that is relaxing & enjoyable; he loves actually being away doing those things & he loves how relaxed he feels after it's all over. The hating part comes with deciding what to do, booking reservations, packing supplies & coming to a compromise with all the other members of the family as to exactly what they'll be doing & where they'll be going.

I have another friend that travels so much for his job that his dream vacation would be a week at home never having to leave the house. Try selling that idea to your spouse & kids!

I think we'd all agree that more valuable than enjoying a get-away is to have a life worth coming home to. Don't stop working on yourself. Don't stop improving. The more you invest in your daily routine the richer your life will become. Start each day by connecting with God, seeking His will & asking for His help. Then go build a great life.

Family Ministries

KIDS Fun Stat! Our Kids Church program for kids (age 3-grade 6) program is thriving! We have had 38 families check in to Kids Church since last August. There are currently 64 kids on the Kids Church roster! Give a high-5 & a "thanks!" to a Kids Church volunteer for taking time to share God's Word with our New Life Kids!

VBS Wrap-up: Over 70 kids registered for our free one-day Bible Basecamp VBS event (a New Life record!) and 47 showed up ready to learn about Jesus & how to "stay on the right path" as a Christian. Thank you to Dana Catania for leading the event, all of our volunteers for your helping hands, & those who donated decorations!

Feel welcome to grab a pack of crayons, some coloring sheets, & a picture book for your child to help them sit through the service today. These items are on the table in the back of the sanctuary.
