The View
From My Window
WITH PASTOR JOEL

It's with great joy we welcome LeRoy, Wanda, Libby & Lincoln Bunker as our special guests this morning! They worked with our kids & youth for many years & their influence is still seen in many parts of the building as well as in the lives of our teens & young adults.

One of my fond memories of working with the Bunkers was when LeRoy & I were on our way home from a District event & happened upon a couple of cows in the middle of Route 194. We herded the cows back onto the farm before continuing on our way.

I always wanted to be a cowboy & other than not being dressed like one, not having a horse or a gun, I was one for a couple of minutes that day.
