The View From My Window WITH PASTOR JOEL

I do a lot of my cooking from memory of the recipes I've used in the past. Usually this works out well. Occasionally I'll miss an ingredient that isn't obvious but makes a difference. For example, confidant I had all the necessary ingredients in my Green Pepper Soup, I thought to check the recipe just to be sure. Sure enough I'd neglected to put in a cube of beef bouillon! The soup would have been fine but not quite as flavorful as usual.

When sharing the gospel with someone its helpful to look at the recipe to be sure you aren't missing a key ingredient. We'll be considering that recipe in today's message.
