The View From My Window WITH PASTOR JOEL

I was in the Post Office last month when a fellow came out of the Employees Only door, walked over & unlocked the customer access door. "They finally hired a man around here," I said. "What's that supposed to mean?" he scowled. "Just that I've seen nothing but women working the counter here for years," I replied. "I don't work here," he barked as he disappeared into the next room.

The next day I went in to have a letter weighed & guess who was behind the counter waiting on customers – but I guess he doesn't work there.

Have you noticed that some people are nicer than others? The fact is the customer the man was waiting on when I walked in was a pretty young woman & he could not have been more charming! He was all smiles, joking .... The Bible urges us to be genuinely nice. Treat others like brothers & sisters, helping them whenever you can.
