The View
From My Window
WITH PASTOR JOEL

We put a little sign out in front of my Dad's house, "For Sale by Owner" & my sister placed an ad on Facebook. Many people came to see the property & one young man decided to buy it. Both my sister & I called my father's attorney numerous times asking him to draw up a sales agreement. His secretary was very polite & apologetic but he never returned any of our calls. Finally, my sister happened onto a lady who works in real estate that agreed to do all the paperwork for a flat rate. Finding her – a person to intercede between us & all the legal documentation – felt like the first day of spring! She enabled us to do what we could not do on our own.

There are so many things in life we cannot do without assistance, especially when it comes to spiritual matters. We can help save souls, start a revival, prevent tragedies, & so much more with the right intercessor. He will not do such things without our involvement just like our real estate lady can't sell our house without our input. Get busy: pray.
