The View from My Window with Pastor Joel

We spend a lot of our time trying not to be noticed: not noticed by the IRS, the police officer with the radar gun, the kid that's "it" when you're playing tag, your mom when the garbage needs taken out, the pastor when he's looking for a new Sunday School teacher...

There is, however, one very good reason to get noticed: in order to bring glory to God. We want to do things that will make other people think about the goodness of the Lord and the salvation He offers. Selfless acts of kindness and love are often the best way to showcase His amazing ways. Be kind, do nice things, then be sure to give the credit to Jesus.
