WITH PASTOR JOEL

In Home Alone 2, Kevin follows a man in an overcoat just like the one his father was wearing through the airport. As a result, he ends up on the wrong airplane & thus in New York City while his family lands in Miami. Fortunately for him, Kevin ends up with his dad's wallet filled with cash & credit cards. However, he learns that freedom, even with a pocket full of money, cannot replace the security & love of his family.

How can we be sure we're following the right Father? How do we know we've not been deceived into thinking that what we've come to believe is the truth, the whole truth & nothing but the truth? In this new series titled, "Follow" we'll be looking at the basics of discipleship: what everyone needs to know who is serious about following Jesus.
