STEPHEN'S LEGACY

This ministry aids members of our church & community with health needs, home or car repairs, financial aid, meals and transportation. If you or someone you know is in need of help in any of these areas, email hello@nla.today. The View from My Window with Pastor Joel

Recently, our kids from Virginia visited for a week. It was a week like none other I'd ever spent. It was busy, noisy, crazy, expensive, fascinating, exciting, challenging... My biggest win was that Adalyn, our one year old, went with the boys and me to the park. Normally, she screams whenever at least one of her parents aren't in sight. I even have a selfie of her smiling as I held her! There's not another human on the planet that can make that boast aside from her Dad and Mom.

All four of my grandsons were easily won over but each of my granddaughters took time. I wooed them from afar, feeding them their favorite foods and candies. I offered to take them places they wanted to go when no one else could. I led them along with crumbs of kindness.

Love can be a lot of work. That's true in families, that's true in churches. People will bless your socks off at times bitterly disappoint you at other times. Love is a patient art; a learned ability. Keep practicing your love skills until you've won everyone over.
