The View from My Window

with Pastor Joel

My brother-in-law Roy gave me a powerful gift recently. I was looking for a .22 I could use to teach my grandkids how to shoot as they come of age. I asked him if he'd be interested in selling or trading for a Montgomery Wards single shot rifle he came upon a couple years ago while cleaning out houses that had been foreclosed. It was in real rough shape when he found it but was able to restore it to near-new condition. He said, "Joel, you can have any .22 in my gun case. In fact, I'm going to send along Dad's Winchester." As I found out, his Dad had purchased that gun in the 1930's at the local hardware store, Klingensmith's. It's been in the family ever since and has been shot by every one of Barb's siblings, as well as her Mother and Father. Now, Ed's great-grandkids will learn to shoot using it! Roy and Brenda don't have any kids of their own. Still, he could have sold it for a pretty penny or traded it for more shooting supplies or whatever. That's not just a generous gift, it takes your breath away! It brought tears to my eyes.

I hope to give a gift like that to someone someday. Until then, I'll practice giving lesser things so I'm ready when that day comes.
