The View from My Window

with Pastor Joel

Tough world; great church. That's the story of the church Paul founded in Ephesus. As soon as the church began to take hold in Ephesus it got the attention of the local silversmiths whose livelihood was threatened as people left idolatry to embrace Christ. Those idol-smiths stirred up the whole city against these new converts causing them to choose to go deeper in their faith or abandon it altogether. The result was a church willing to suffer in order to know Jesus. Their resolve attracted others to the faith and their body continued to grow. In this next series we'll be studying Paul's letter to this brave congregation and discover some wonderful truths about who we are in Christ Jesus our Lord.
