The View from My Window

with Pastor Joel

"Steady as she goes!" Progress, make some progress in your life. I've found what our grandparents told us to be true: "The older you get the faster time flies." It fascinates me that an hour can feel so long while years fly by. As we age there is a temptation to drift, to coast, to allow the days just to pass. We're not as anxious about things, not as motivated, not as concerned. But we must fight the tendency to retire into a vegetative state. Each day we've been given is a gift and we should use it to continue to accomplish worthwhile things that will benefit others. As Jesus said, "We must work while it is day for the night cometh when no one can work." I find having a healthy routine helps. Scheduled time for exercise, devotions, study, writing, services, contacting others, etc. helps me stay in a productive rhythm.

Set some goals beyond your own happiness. Serve a group of people who won't be able to return the favor. Go out in a "blaze of glory". Get better at doing life, not bitter that it hasn't been as good to you as you had hoped it would be. Each of us has something to offer and can do something that needs to be done. Do it.
