The View from My Window

with Pastor Joel

Doug & Jackee Raught are missionaries we've supported for decades. They started out in IMM (International Media Ministries) but soon transitioned to leading the "Fire Choir" in Belgium. The Fire Choir invites people from a very non-churched culture to join a community choir where they learn and perform Black Gospel Music. In the course of learning the songs and interacting with the missionaries a number of them have become followers of Jesus! An invitation to receive Christ was also issued in each of their concerts. It was a very unique way of taking Jesus to a nation uninterested in going to church.

Recently, the Raught's have transitioned once again, this time from leading the Fire Choir back to IMM. With a strong background in graphic design and media their goal is to share the gospel via every available technological outlet. It came as quite a surprise to me personally when they made this latest change because of how vested they've been for so long in their ministry in Belgium. Not only did they change ministries they changed countries! Their new assignment is in Spain.

Why make the leap from choir director to program producer/director? When they checked in with the Lord, He wanted to reassign them. By "Checking Coordinates" they were as shocked as anyone that they'd be making such a drastic move. Have you checked in with the Lord lately? Maybe He's preparing to redirect your life too!
