The View from My Window

with Pastor Joel

Got a bucket list? Anything you hope to accomplish before you leave this world? Have any goals in mind? If I could grant you one wish, what would it be? Paul was in his 60's and in reasonably good health when he makes a final plea. He knew he wasn't going to die of old age. Soon he was going to be beheaded. Did he ask for a steak dinner? How about a night out on the town? No, he asked for courage & inspiration to finish well. If he was going to die for being a Christian, he wanted to go out with no doubt in anyone's mind that he was indeed a follower of Jesus Christ. In fact, he was hoping to convince some in the courtroom, and perhaps even among the executioners, that following Jesus was the only way to live even if it meant dying.

Who would you like to influence with the gospel? Are you doing anything to make that happen? It starts with a desire to do so. Add to that prayer and a plan. The plan might include a conversation, a track, booklet or invitation to church or to view a Christian movie. It's important to do something to help someone else find salvation.

Paul could have increased his chances of acquittal if he had just kept his mouth shut. But then again, what good is a long life if it doesn't bear any fruit? As Paul himself wrote in Acts 20:24, "But my life is worth nothing to me unless I use it for finishing the work assigned me by the Lord Jesus—the work of telling others the Good News about the wonderful grace of God."
