The View from My Window

with Pastor Joel

Monday, December 27, 2021 was our first measurable snowfall of the season. We'd just finished prayer, Cheryl looked up and said, "It's snowing!" Ray, Cheryl, and I stood there enjoying the scene as though we were all ten year old's. Large flakes fell from the sky and quickly covered the ground. In no time at all it was a winter wonderland. So much in life comes to us as a surprise. Even with all our technology, experience, and know-it-all-ness, it's the simple, unexpected delights that fill us with wonder and awe.

When will it snow? When will you graduate, get a promotion, get married, move, retire...? It's nice to know when but it's also nice to be surprised. Waiting is a key ingredient to receiving all the good things God loves to pour out on us humans. We, of course, want to know when those blessings will come. The Lord reserves the right to bless us in His own good time. It is for us to follow His will; it is for Him to choose how and when He will reward our faithfulness. Here's a hint: it always takes longer to get rewarded than we think it should but no one ever regretted waiting on the Lord.
