The View from My Window

with Pastor Joel

It's been said that there are different "love languages". Each of us gives and receives love in different ways. For some people being remembered with thoughtful gifts on special occasions really floats their boat. For others, they really appreciate a warm embrace. Words of appreciation, quality time together and doing things on one's behalf round out the "Five Love Languages" made famous by Gary Chapman.

What language does God speak? How does He know we love Him? He speaks all five fluently. In fact, if you really want to love Him well, you'll not skimp on any of them. Words of praise is huge but they better be backed up with good deeds that fit what we've said to Him. Talk is cheap UNLESS it's backed up with a lifestyle that honors the Lord.
