The View from My Window

with Pastor Joel

In my lifetime, sin has never been more “in your face” than it is today. Filth headlines the entertainment industry, dominates the talk shows, and has even made major inroads into public school curriculum. Cheaters abound, expectations of keeping oneself for marriage have all but evaporated, and very few, even in the church, are held to any standard of morality. If you cannot develop self-discipline and have a personal goal to please the Lord, you will quickly and easily be swept right into hell with the rest of our perverted society.

BUT, if you do desire to follow the Lord, obey His commands, and love His ways, there is ample power from heaven to fuel your efforts and defend your sanctified heart. Like the prophets of old, you will live like an alien, untainted by the temptations of the day, and tuned into the heartbeat of God.

There is freedom from the things that tempt us, if only we will seek it out. It won't come easily. It won't come naturally. You will have to swim against the tide until your heart and mind are strong enough to resist your own fleshly impulses and enjoy dining at God's table. The words to an old hymn come to mind, “A higher plain than I have found, Lord plant my feet on higher ground.”
