The View from My Window

with Pastor Joel

Not everyone who says to Jesus, "Lord, Lord, did we not [do all kinds of stuff] in Your Name?" will enter into the Kingdom of God. Perhaps there is no viler a use of Jesus' name in vain than to use it as if He is your Savior yet never serve Him as your Lord. You worship Him, even do some Kingdom work but pick and choose when to be obedient, which commands you will obey, and just how you will spend your hours and years.

There's an old saying: "If Jesus isn't Lord of all, He isn't Lord at all." A lot of people followed Jesus for a while when He walked this earth. When things got confusing or difficult, they left. The same has been happening ever since. Most people follow Jesus at their convenience. Some are "fair weather" Christians while others only bother with Him when they're in real trouble. Where are the people who are willing to live and die for Jesus? What about you?
