The View from My Window

With Pastor Joel

Today's faith fact is, "God Provides for Me". There are two types of people: those who recognize God as their provider and those who do not. The ones who trust God walk in the confidence that He will supply all of their needs according to His riches in glory, even if they can't see how that provision could possibly be given under their circumstances. Those who do not trust God as their provider worry about everything, often stress out the people around them, and exhaust themselves trying to do what only God can do.

Relax, God's got this. As much as praise is an affirmation that all our hope is in the Lord, fear is evidence that our faith is anemic. Hebrews tells us that those who come to God must believe that He is the rewarder of those who diligently seek Him. Don't worry, pray, then trust God. Resist the temptation to allow fear or worry to have access to your mind. Fill your thoughts with the promises of God, then trust them.
