The View from My Window

With Pastor Joel

Take note in today's text that David not only defeated Goliath physically on the battlefield, he out-spoke the giant as well! Goliath promised to feed David's body to the birds, David countered with a pledge to feed the entire Philistine army to the birds of the air and beasts of the forest.

David wasn't just giant hunting that day. He was out to rout an army! Perhaps there's a bigger prize than just getting past your next obstacle. Maybe God has something more in mind. Battles come because there are spoils to be won. Rather than just hoping to survive this next week ask God to clue you in to the end game, the bigger prize, the real reason for the struggle. Some wars are won in a single battle, others take a series of skirmishes. Don't lose heart, trust that every obstacle is amassing plunder that sooner or later will not only fell the giant but rout the enemy's army.
