The View from My Window

With Pastor Joel

For whatever reason, I forgot to print off this week's sermon after I wrote it. Last week, I left my notebook full of sermons at home and had to print off a copy of the message I thought I was supposed to preach last Sunday so I could review it during the week. By mistake I printed off this week's message and reviewed it. Fortunately, I discovered my mistake once I had my notebook in hand. That's when I saw that I had printed out the wrong sermon and had next week's in line for this week.

Through a series of mistakes, I discovered another mistake before it got my preaching schedule out of whack with the Bible Engagement Project calendar. Isn't God good? I could never have orchestrated a series of mistakes to catch a mistake before it's hatched. What a Friend we have in Jesus! This experience proves today's title: "God Cares About Me & You Too".

Many of you credit me with being a good pastor, if only you knew the truth! If it wasn't for God watching my every step, we'd all be in a heap of trouble.
