Giving Opportunity - Last Day for Matching Challenge

Lucas & Mandi Geiman are planning a very critical trip to Boston June 15-23 in order to go to the Pitt Hopkins Clinic to get help for their two daughters, Bryleigh & Belle, who are both diagnosed with Pitt Hopkins Like 1 Syndrome. There are a lot of costs involved in making this trip and we are inviting the New Life Family to be a part of relieving some of the financial burden for the Geiman's as they make this trip. Today is the last day you can give towards this trip for Stephen's Legacy's Matching Challenge to match the money raised, up to $1000. You can make checks out to NLA. In the memo line write: Geiman Family, and drop checks in the offering. If you'd like to give cash, there are envelopes on the shelves in the back of the Sanctuary. # The View from My Window With Pastor Joel

In the Old Testament, Moses gave us the 10 commandments. Here in Matthew, Jesus gave us the Beatitudes. Moses taught us to be afraid of violating God's law. Jesus teaches us how to live a blessed life. In fact, Jesus turns conventional wisdom on its ear telling us that the way to be happy is to take the hard road. Be humble, grieve, make peace, get persecuted...seriously? That's the way to be happy? It sounds counterintuitive because it is. These are secrets only those who truly trust Jesus would dare implement.

When was the last time you blessed someone who was cursing you? Is your heart clean, even toward those who have wronged you? Love, forgive & serve, that's the Sermon on the Mount in a nutshell. Keeping up?
