The View from My Window

With Pastor Joel

As a dad, and now a grandpa, I can testify to you that nothing brings me more joy, delight & pride than my kids and grandkids. I have many blessings in my life, but my family tops the list. I know there are guys who were never given the privilege of having children of their own and I do not mean to cast any shadows. God will surely fill their lives with many good things, it's His promise. A love for everyone's kids is a trait I inherited from my father and I see also lives in my son. But there's something special about having your own.

God calls us His own! We are special to Him. You are special to Him. I'd venture to say, based on the fact that you are in church today, that God is special to you as well. Why do you suppose He chose to relate to us as our Father? God bless all our dads today!
