The View from My Window

With Pastor Joel

I probably don't need to tell you this but, God has a way of redirecting our lives when we least expect it. Every day, as most people simply go about business as usual, individuals are being plucked out of the crowd by the Holy Spirit and are being transformed into children of God. What's your story?

Yet, once born again, we are not exempt from the Lord's propensity to change our lives in dramatic ways. A career change, a new diagnosis, a move to a new location... All these things, and more, can come up quickly. You can feel "blindsided" by one or more of these changes. Never assume that a blessing or a challenge in your life will remain as it is forever. When circumstances change, don't doubt God's goodness—depend on it.
