The View from My Window

With Pastor Joel

You have feelings, that is a fact. Feelings are not facts. There are times, as a believer, you will feel all alone. You may feel abandoned. Neither of those feelings state the fact. The fact is that God will never leave or forsake you. The Lord loves you. He has a plan to prosper and bless, not to harm you.

As a Christian, you will walk through some dark valleys, but you will never walk there alone. God is with you whether you feel His presence or not. It may feel like God doesn't hear your prayers but the fact is, He hears every word and He is touched with whatever is weighing heavy on your heart.

Deliverance is only ever a matter of time. As someone has said, "Problems are preludes to miracles." Hang in there, rookie.
