The View from My Window

With Pastor Joel

Branding or rebranding continues to be a hot topic. Each of us carries a brand or reputation. In theory, we should be driven by what we want to be. Then we want that image to represent us. It begins with basic questions like, "Who am I?", "Why am I here?", "What do I hope to accomplish?", and "How do I complete my goal?"

In essence, Jesus revealed His personal objective & what He hoped His disciples would achieve as well as the role we are to play in it all when He prayed as recorded in John 17. To glorify or reveal the glory of God to the world was His function. He prayed for His disciples to be protected as they carried on that work, and He prayed for us that we would be unified in our endeavors to carry on that mission.

It's as though Jesus anticipated how hard it would be for us to remain together in order to accomplish anything of lasting value. Indeed, our individual churches struggle to remain intact, let alone denominations or the church as a whole. How sad. The very body designed to lead the world into wholeness has such a battle maintaining its own harmony. May Jesus' prayers be answered in our day!
